Without exception they are certhusiastic in their praise. Its extraordinary me and sweetness of tone; its durability and its many tother qualities have used these eminent experts to select and use the Hardman.

That the word of these musical authorities is of value to the prospective chaser of a piano cannot be gaineaid, as they would not risk their reputation the endorsement of an instrument that was not worthy of all their praise.

Cobb, Rice and Associated Press to Cover World's Series For The Times-Dispatch Exclusively

Cobb's name is a household word. His reports of the games which appeared in The Times-Dispatch last year were regarded GRANTLAND RICE.

Tyrus Raymond Cobb, premier batsman of the world, and Grantland Rice, not only an authority on baseball, but unquestionably the most picturesque writer on baseball topics in the United States, augmented by the complete and exhaustive reports of the Associated Press, will cover the World's Series, the first game of which begins in New York Tuesday. for The

when it comes to the final estimate, the people were given a good run for their money had it been announced that the go was to be an exhibition affair. In view of the fact that the articles of agreement, whether any such actually existed or existed only for advertising purposes, stated that it was to be a finish match, the public was fooled, and badly fooled, and was fooled in its demonstration for money backs or a delivery of the goods.

It's over, and while Turner showed that he is the cleverer man of the two, the game is dead so far as a Rishmond audience is concerned. It may be a pity, but the result was inevitable after last night's performance.
